

The Blues Can Always Sing My Pain

Neon Watson
06/08/2010 – Rev.12/31/2010

Verse 1:

A A7
I had a girl, She went away
D Dm
I was broken, Nothin' to say

Chorus 1:

A F#m
But the blues, yeah the blues
B E A D9 A E9
Can always sing my pain.

Verse 2:

A A7
When I was young, I had lots of fun
D Dm
Now that I'm older, The good times seem gone

Chorus 2:

A F#m
But the blues, yeah the blues
B E A D9 A E9
Can always sing my pain.

Verse 3:

A A7
I had a job, Made lots of cash,
D Dm
But the boss-man, Put me out with the trash.

Chorus 3:

A F#m
But the blues, yeah the blues
B E A D9 A E9
Can always sing my pain.

[Lead: Guitar]

Bridge:

D Dm

Before the blues, I used to cry,
A A7
Nobody listened, I thought I would die.
D Dm
Then came the blues, Strong as a train,
E E3 E
Started singin'; Singin' all my pain.

Verse 4:

A A7
Life ain't no better, still got that tone,
D Dm
But I can take it, Out here on my own,

Chorus 4:

A F#m
But the blues, yeah the blues
B E A D9 A E9
Can always sing my pain.

[Lead: Harmonica]

Chorus 5:

A F#m
But the blues, yeah the blues
B E A D9 A E9
Can always sing my pain.

Chorus 6:

A F#m B E
'Cause the blues, yeah the blues

(B R E A K - - - silent pause)
(A-Capella - no instruments)

A
Will always sing my pain.

A D9 A E9

[Whole band slams back in for a big finish.]

E N D !